REVISION PLANS / TIMETABLE

Why?

- Provide a routine
- Spread it out
- Ensure right balance between subjects
- Manageable chunks
- Avoid last minute panic

Won't work if...

- Too much - not realistic
- Don't take into account you!

REVISION PLANS

How

- Make a list of all your subjects and topic areas – strengths & weaknesses
- Use a blank timetable (paper, electronic, app - such as Timetable Planner)
- Add non-school commitment – clubs, family commitments, chores, meal time etc
- Add subject revision
- Spread sessions out
- 30 minutes session max
- Add breaks

Flash Cards

- Question or key term on one side
- Answer or definition on the other
- Keep information as short as possible
- Write clearly- you should be able to read what you have written at a very quick glance
- Use different coloured card or pens for different subject /topics
- Review them regularly

Mind Maps

- Use a key image to represent the topic at the centre
- Use large branches for the main topics and smaller branches for sub-topics
- Use different colours for branches
- Use lots of images to trigger your memory
- Use key words and phrases – don't write too much

Don't just copy sentences – use your own words!

Condensing Notes

- Choose a topic or part topic (not too large)
- Write out key words, phrases, diagrams, quotes etc that trigger your memory.
- Pick out key diagrams, quotes etc.
- Re-read your notes and check they makes sense and contain key information.
- Make sure you use your own word – don't just copy
- Re-write them again – further summarising.

The Exams

BROOKFIELD COMMUNITY SCHOOL
COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE

Exams start on Monday 25th April

- Morning exams will start at 8.30- be at the Sports Hall for 8.25
- Check your timetable to make sure you know what, where and when your exams are
- Your teachers want to see what you can do. Attempt all questions so they can give you feedback
- The exams will be run like regular exams; any communication during an exam will result in a U grade and follow up with parents

Equipment in exams

- No mobile phones- these must be switched off and in your bag
- No watches
- 2 black pens, pencils, ruler and rubber. You should also bring a calculator for Maths and Science exams.
- A water bottle with the label removed
- Invigilators will be in to support the exams- listen to their instructions
